COVID-19 Job Keeper Extension of Time

28 April 2020

Breaking News!

The ATO has now announced an extension of time for employers who wish to enrol for the first two Job Keeper fortnights to 31 May, an extension from 30 April.

Crucially, for the first two fortnights that run from 30 March to 12 April, and 13 April to 26 April, the ATO will now accept the late payments of the minimum $1,500 per fortnight as long as they are paid by 8 May.

“This means that you can make two fortnightly payments of at least $1,500 per fortnight by 8 May, or a combined payment of at least $3,000”, said the ATO in an update on Monday.
